Faculty of Sports and Exercise Medicine, RCPI & RCSI

Higher Specialist Training Programme in Sports and Exercise Medicine (HST SEM)

HST SEM Scoring System - (100%) TOTAL MAXIMUM SCORE

Professional Development   50% maximum

Clinical Experience   25% maximum (*)

3%	Structured Reference Forms (x 3)
10%	Relevant Clinical Experience with Teams / Sport Environment
5%	Relevant Technical Skills Courses (see appendix)
7%	Validated logbook / consolidated sheets (best 25 cases)

Research & Academia   25% maximum (*)

Higher degrees relevant to SEM training (awarded):

15%	PhD
12%	MD
10%	MCh
8%	Other postgraduate degrees

5%   Postgraduate degree submitted to a university but not yet awarded

OR

Diplomas (related to Sports & Exercise Medicine)

2%   Diplomas (not related to Sports & Exercise Medicine)

Publications:

25%   Published Research: Scoring weighted according to authorship and journal impact factor, to a maximum of 25%

5%   Presentations

5%   Research Prizes / Research Grants

1%   Case report

(*) some candidates may max out in this category; if this is the case, they will score 25%.

NB:
  1) Please note that there is no score allocated for the MSc in Sports and Exercise Medicine
  2) Applicants must score a minimum of 5% in the Research & Academia category to be eligible for short-listing

Interview   50% maximum